THE COUNCIL OF NORTHERN CAVING CLUBS

NOTICE TO ALL MEMBER CLUBS

Potholing banned on Northern fells!

It was, thirteen years ago, and could easily happen again in 1976. This threat is serious enough for a Special General Meeting of CNCC to be called next month.

Did you know that, in 1962, caving was banned on Leck Fell, Casterton Fell and Fountains Fell?

Did you know that clubs got together to form CNCC because they could not negotiate access separately? Access Agreements covering Leck and Casterton Fells were signed in 1963, and for part of Fountains Fell in 1964.

Did you know that the other holes covered by CNCC permits were also closed or threatened with closure before access agreements were negotiated?

Did you know that, as a CNCC Member, your club has accepted the Constitution and the terms of all the Access Agreements?

Do all the active members of your club know these facts?

If the agreed permit systems cease to work, or if member clubs choose to ignore them, then the landowners will terminate the Agreements and access rights will be withdrawn. Is that what your club wants? The arrangements have worked reasonably satisfactorily for several years but yet 'pirating' is becoming increasingly prevalent. Why? The Council's Committee knows that communications with clubs have been far from perfect and that this may not have helped but without the full co-operation of clubs, they could never hope to reach the main body of active cavers who have little time for reading minutes even if they were given the opportunity.

It is the member clubs who are C.N.C.C., not the few long-suffering individuals elected, or delegated, to the Committee. If clubs do not regard themselves as part of the organisation and ensure acceptance of agreed rules by their own members then the Council itself becomes a mockery and might just as well cease to exist. The general attitude of cavers in most Member Clubs, including Full Member Clubs, prevents CNCC from resisting the very real threat which hangs over our access to many fine caves. Recent incidents at certain holes have brought matters to head and pending landowner changes in other areas are not going to make things any easier.

The Committee clubs have agreed that a Special General Meeting should be called to fully discuss the issues involved: issues such as what action could, or should, be taken against clubs whose members blatantly disregard access agreements? What changes are called for in CNCC policy or organisation? Should the Council remain in existence?

It is hoped that as many Full, and Associate, Member Clubs will send a delegate to this meeting which could make some decisions with quite far-reaching consequences. Please indicate whether your club is concerned by returning the attached reply slip. The Meeting will be at Ingleton Community Centre, commencing 2 p.m. on Saturday 7th February 1976.

COUNCIL OF NORTHERN CAVING CLUBS

The Council of Northern Caving Clubs.
Special General Meeting. 7th Feb. 1976.

Chairman's Address.

Firstly welcome to the Meeting.

It has been called as you have already been informed to discuss the future of the Council, which the Committee Clubs feel is in some jeopardy.

Should the Meeting establish that the Council has a future, then ~~the~~ Committee Clubs will require clear directives from the Meeting by which it may tackle the problems facing us at present.

The biggest of these problems is not so much the closing of fells and the caves thereon but the old, <sup>related</sup> ~~old~~ problem of pirating.

Pirating has now reached <sup>an</sup> unacceptable level and has taken an <sup>alarming</sup> ~~new~~ new turn. The trend is now, not only to pirate the holes that the diligent secretaries of the majority of Clubs have had the foresight to book, but to pirate their equipment as well. The folly <sup>of</sup> ~~in~~ this method of caving is self evident. The inevitable and to myself at least, the most welcome result, is that member clubs are beginning to complain bitterly. These people and they include member clubs are fully responsible, ~~for~~ not only for damaging our hard won access arrangements, but also of creating bad ~~feeling~~ <sup>feeling</sup> within the Council itself. The Committee feels that whilst these conditions exist, there seems little point in attempting <sup>to</sup> improve access agreements or even in administering the access arrangements as they stand at present.

With pressure from landowners to restrict caving to the agreed numbers on the one hand, and the refusal of many covers to even vaguely concern themselves with the essential rules on the other hand, the whole system must inevitably collapse. Its weakness seems to be in that it is based on trust.

Cave politics are, unfortunately, very much a part of our caving activities and are here to stay. The pressure on the caves of the N. of England is now such that rules must exist and must be adhered to. There are no special privileges for long service. The elected Committee Clubs are represented by active covers, who perform their often thankless tasks in the sole interest of Covers and Caving. You elected them and you are morally bound to give them your support. That is what I'm asking you to do. ~~The ball is fairly & squarely in your court~~

The agenda is very loose and gives ample opportunity for you to air your views. please do.
